

LEEDS CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW 2019

29 dogs entered. Bitch type far more consistent to standard than the dogs, however both CC winners of type. Nice young bitch puppy in Reed & Bakers youngster, with a promising future in Putnam's graduate bitch.

PGD 1 Day's Waldo Vom Busshof Mit Alfriston (Imp) Deu. 2 Yrs old, Rangy dog, with good spring of rib deep chest, good bone to match his structure, pleasing in eye / head. Wayward when moving needs more discipline in handling when on the move.

Lacking the body of winner, pleasing head n eye, nice turn stifle overall he lacked what winner had on the day.

OD 1 Day's RaYcris Constatin At Alfriston 6 Yrs old. Solid dog with good body & bone. His head did not appeal to me, moved ok with drive but not the flowing graceful ease which I would expect.

VD 1 Logie & Gray Sh. Ch Albadhu Paws For Perfection 9 Yrs old. Lovely outline with super shoulders, good body as one would expect from a mature dog. Lovely eye set into good 'Munsters' head with a nice reach of neck. Nice coupled loins with strong back and quarters. Overall a very nice dog, power and style when moving. Dog CC, well worthy of his title. 2 Hewitt Sh. Ch Brockchime Be a Better Boy 8yrs old. A worthy Champion no doubting that, pleasing head good neck body. I preferred construction of front quarters of winner, and on the day he did not move as winner did, more laboured.

SBD/B (1) Reed & Baker Reed Jaudas Miss Grace, 11 mth old very pleasing puppy lovely head nice eye good reach of neck, good fore end with good shoulder placement, nicely coupled body moved well. Handler and dog would benefit from ring craft training, this animal has promise. They often say your best dog is your first, make best of it.
