Thank you to the Large Munsterlander Club for inviting me to judge and to all the exhibitors who brought their lovely dogs for me to judge as I had a wonderful day.

MPD (1) 1 & RBPIS. Weare's Kamaze Revolution, lovely young puppy dog, good head and nice dark eye, squarely built with nice straight front, good depth and strong hindquarters, pleasing picture in profile and moved nice and freely.

JD (1) 1. Disney & Whiting's Wonglepong Wills Faramir, gorgeous masculine head with melting expression, nice straight front, a good strong well-boned dog who was very well muscled and this showed in his movement. Shown in excellent coat.

SYD (1) 1. Disney & Whiting's Wonglepong Wills Faramir

ND (2) 1. Lovelace's Crumpsbrook Rather Dashing, a very noble elegant head with gentle expression, nice straight front, good depth and well-ribbed back, looked good in profile set up, striking markings and a nice free mover. 2. Davis-Greens Jaudas Ink Spot, a finer dog all through but very pleasing colour, needs time to mature, very sound and well muscled, moved well.

GD (1) Davis-Green's Crumpsbrook Mispel, another nice noble aristocratic head, very attractively marked dog who looked good on the move.

PGD (2) 1. & RCC Tordoff's Crumpsbrook Rather Gallant, liked him as a puppy and he has grown into a very fine young man so full of type, melting head and expression, really stunning in profile, nice and square and well made throughout. Moved perfectly in all directions. 2. Lane's Ilko vom Florbach (Imp Deu), he has matured a lot and presents a lovely picture of a strong, fit and very sound dog. Really good depth of chest. He looked impressive standing and moved with a lovely springy gait.

LD (3) 1. Day's Raycris Constantin at Alfriston, still love that nose and he has matured on into an impressive dog, excellent shoulders and upper arm and really good width of thigh giving nice strong hindquarters, nice square outline giving a balanced profile. Moved well with drive. 2. Dowden & Raggett's Chontelle Summer Solstice, of different type but another lovely dog, good front and forechest, nice hindquarters, shown in excellent coat. Feeling the heat a bit on the move. 3. Jenk's Kalabach Lighting, looked very impressive standing, lovely head and gentle expression, nice and square in profile and stunning coat markings. Moved okay.

OD (2) A couple of really good quality dogs, close decision, just preferred the outline of 1 on the move. 1. Macgregor's SH CH Jaudas Fame & Glory, very pleasing profile on the move and looked the best stacked, a real picture. Well made throughout, a handsome boy. Excellent coat and markings. 2. O'Connell's CH Raycris Quite the Charmer, has a lovely feel to him, strong and powerful, excellent bone, preferred his head and he was impressive in profile but could not match the profile of 1 on the move.

WTD (1) 1 & DCC, BIS and BVIS. Lloyd & Smith's CH Paddockridge Rulander, I gave him the CC the last time I judged and think he has just got better so could not deny him the CC again today. Such a stunning looking munsterlander, so full of type. He has a really gorgeous handsome head with the kindest of eyes and expression and an amazing spongy nose. So pleasing and well balanced in profile, a very well made dog. Moved with drive with a lovely springy gait and shown in excellent coat and condition.

VD (2) 1. Lloyd & Smith's CH Paddockridge Rulander
2. Day's SH CH Raycris New Attraction at Alfriston, another quality dog, lovely typical head, well made and presented a nice square outline, moved well.

PB (1) 1 & BPIS. Black's Seahaven Limited Edition, real quality 10-month-old puppy bitch, she was very together for her age, beautiful head and lovely sweet expression, really good conformation, nice straight front and well-muscled hindquarters. She looked a picture in profile and moved very well too. I am sure she has a bright future.

JB (2) 1. Ogle, Tordoff & Middleton's Ursel Vom Ahler Esch, a beautifully marked bitch with my favourite colouring, pleasing head and nicely made overall, looked good in outline and moved okay. 2. Caile's Kamaze Logis Spirit (AI), actually the better mover with a good gait but slightly narrow all through. Pleasing head, sweet expression and lovely dark eyes.

NB (2)) 1. Disney & Whiting's Wonglepong Willows Sunbird, nicely made young lady who feels good to go over, good feminine head and gentle expression. She moved very well but was giving her handler a hard time. 2. Slamin's Crumpsbrook Sommer Eiche, a finer bitch and more petite in frame but presents a nice picture in profile, very feminine head and sweet expression. Moved okay.

GB (3) 1. Black's Seahaven Limited Edition. 2. Kitchen's Crumpsbrook Rather Regal von Elkemutt, another finer built young lady who looked good in profile and moved well with a pleasing springy gait. Very sweet head and expression. 3. Slamin's Crumpsbrook Sommer Eiche,

PGB (4) 1 . Suchett-Kaye's Cazooska Pixie, won the class on her amazing powerful movement, she just effortlessly floated round the ring, a strong well-made girl, lovely neck and shoulders, good strong topline. 2. Robin's Destanli Jedda's Diamond, a real quality well-made young lady, beautiful head and nice straight front, moved well but could not match 1. 3. Kitchen's Crumpsbrook Rather Regal von Elkemutt. 4. James's Crumpsbrook Angelica

LB (4) 1. Tordoff's Raycris Quite Unique at Crumpsbrook, real quality young lady who looked very impressive in profile, very typy, good head and expression, well made with excellent depth, good strong hindquarters, moved well with drive.
2. Gray & Uherkovichova's Franorst Lady Pamela, another really good mover, nicely balanced in profile, very well-muscled young lady

3. Leeming's Ashlowrick Ladies Day at Iscadu, the best of shoulders and upperarm, beautiful head with a melting expression and lovely dark eye. Maybe feeling the heat a bit today as her movement was sluggish and she seemed to be sagging a bit.

OB (4) A lovely class with four quality bitches 1, BCC, BOS & RBIS. Patrick & Seamon's Ashlowrick Amazing Grace JW, liked her before and just loved her today, such a very powerful, strong and sound young lady who still manages to maintain elegance and femininity, beautiful shape and balance with very good conformation overall and good straight front, very strong and well-muscled hindquarters with good angulation. Really superb movement, she just floated round the ring with a strong reaching springy gait.

2. Robin's Albadhu Talk To The Paw Dha Destanli, beautiful head and expression and she looked impressive in profile. Well made overall with nice neck, pleasing markings and she moved well.

3. Black's Seahaven Borrowed Heaven, very out of coat today but good head and nicely made, pleasing profile, moved okay.

FTB (1) O'Connell's Jaudas Heartbeat, longer cast young lady who looks like she could clear a fence easily, very noble and elegant head, very sound with strong hindquarters, lovely markings. Moved with drive.

WTB (1) 1 & RBCC Ogle & Butler's SH CH Raycris Freya, I gave her the CC last time I judged and was tempted again but my CC winner was just that little bit better today especially on the move, but my previous comments still apply. A really beautiful bitch of lovely make, shape and type, excellent depth and width, with good, well-muscled hindquarters, has a lovely feel to her reflecting that she is very correct in every department. Looked good in profile and she moved very well.

SBEB (2) 1. Black's Seahaven Borrowed Heaven. 2. Caile's Kamaze Logis Spirit (AI), VB (2) 1. Nickelson's Blitzan Eternal Light, very pretty feminine girl who is not showing her age at all, sweet head and expression, lovely markings and very sound on the move. 2. Patrick & Seamon's SH CH Ashlowrick Satin Flower JW, a real quality bitch who presented such a balanced picture in profile, lovely feminine head, excellent front assembly and nice strong hindquarters but, unfortunately, she was not sound on the move which prevented me from giving her higher honours.

BRACE (2) 1. Disney & Whittings Wonglepong Wills Faramir and Wonglepong Willows Sunbird. 2. Black's Seahaven Limited Edition and Seahaven Borrowed Heaven.
