Large Munsterlanders

I have to say when I saw the numbers, I was a little disappointed, however, I was not disappointed by the overall quality of most of the exhibits.

Puppy Dog (2)

- 1. Logie & Braidwood's Albadhu Wish upon a Star. Oh what a cracker, loved this young lad the minute he walked into the ring. Only 10 months old but super all through. A good size, well off for bone, with an attractive head & nice dark eye-well balanced. Expertly handled he kept a level topline on the move. Against anything I have done I had to award him DCC & BPIB _ I heard he went on to be shortlisted in the group – will be watching this boy with interest.
- 2. Webb's Albadhu Counting Stars. Litter brother to 1 and whilst similar comments apply at the moment his immaturity and his handler's inexperience let him down. I'm sure with lots of practise and more time will see him mature on quite nicely.

Post Graduate Dog (0)

Limit Dog

- 1. Jenk's Albadhu Hidden Potential, a taller dog than I would prefer with an attractive head and dark eye. Moved out well keeping a level topline. RCC.
- 2. Logie & Braidwood's Albadhu Walk on the Wild Side, this would have been my winner but whilst I preferred him to 1, being a better size & having a lovely head & dark eye leading to a correct neck and well balanced throughout, he wasn't 100% on the move so sadly had to settle for 2nd today.
- 3. Murdoch's Kamaze Fire Dance

Puppy Bitch (1)

1. Bisset's Albadhu Written in the Stars, stood alone, litter sister to my dog puppy but not the maturity of her brother. A pretty girl with an attractive head moved OK.

Junior Bitch (3,1)

1. Bisset's Albadhu Written in the Stars
2. Murdoch's Tureagh Crystal Cylipso, a very slight, immature almost puppy like, not a bit like her near 18 months of age maturity should be in my opinion.

Post Grad Bitch (1)

1. McKenna's Albadhu Hidden Agenda, although this young lady stood alone she has everything she needs apart from time. A pretty head with a dark eye, a good shape and correct on the move. Handler & dog are learning to good effect.

Open Bitch (4, 1)

1. Logie & Braidwood's Albadhu Positive Vibes JW I really liked this girl she has a lovey head and dark eye, well made all through with excellent muscle. Moved out well on a good stride keeping a level topline. Well earned CC & BOB.
2. Butler's Sh Ch Toberwory Breaking Dawn at Jendela's, loved the overall shape and look of this lady, she was certainly dripping coat, a good shape and well proportioned all through she just lacked the really hard muscle of 1, movement was good but she met her match today, another day & who knows
3. Black's Seahaven Limited Edition

Veteran Bitch (1)

1. Robin's Sh Ch Destanli Jedda's Diamond. I really like this girl, she has a lovely head with a nice dark eye giving an attractive expression, a good shape with correct angulation and well muscled. Her movement was very good and she kept a good level topline whilst on the move, delighted to award her the RCC & Best Veteran.
